Assumption Catholic School News:

We are off to a great start of the school year! Our 8th graders begin their visits of the Catholic High Schools this month, please keep them in your prayers as they discern the next step in their education.

Please be sure to mark your calendars to support the school at Chick-fil-A night on October 20th! Be sure to mention Assumption as you place your order!

We still have spots open in many of our classrooms, including our PreK. Please spread the word about our wonderful school to anyone thinking of a Catholic education for their child.

-Mrs. Grey

Proposition 106 : "End of Life Options"

Let's get the facts straight about Prop 106 before we make it a law.

NO PROP 106
A FATALLY FLAWED MEASURE

From the Pastor's Desk

"Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine?" Jesus had worked a miracle of healing for ten people afflicted with leprosy. They had cried out for him to have pity on them, and he did. But only one member of this group took the time to return to Jesus, fall at his feet, and thank him. Why?

Perhaps some were so busy rejoicing that they forgot to give thanks. Perhaps others thought they deserved to be healed and thus did not think in terms of gratitude for the miracle. Maybe some in the group weren't sure that the healing was going to last. Or, possibly, some of them were just selfish and lazy. Whatever the case, Jesus affirms the one man who does the right thing: "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you." Jesus thus establishes this Samaritan man as our example. We too are to glorify "God in a loud voice" for all that he has done for us.

So, what exactly has God done for us? What are the miracles in our lives that we have failed to notice, to believe, or to appreciate? Undoubtedly the answers will be different for everyone, with one main exception: we are all called to give thanks for the gift of life, of course. This is the first miracle God worked on our behalf! Bringing us into existence to live and love is a gift we might tend to take for granted. But surely, we can be thankful for more.

We would all do well to reflect on the multitude of God's gifts in our lives. Sometimes we have to pause long enough to think and recognize those things we should be grateful for. But a little effort in this regard is well worth it to avoid being like the ungrateful lepers. Instead, may we be the ones who give thanks where thanks is due.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK:

God always welcomes us even if we stray or refuse to acknowledge God's presence. He especially reaches out to the outcast and the marginalized. As a result it is often those who are poorest and most vulnerable who acquire a deeper faith. We are called to be models of faith and gratitude as well.

Attention All Seniors!

Are you 55 and over? The Seniors Group at Assumption would like to invite you to join our group.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

Is there any particular document I can read about the church's position on life issues? I am looking for something that gives me more than just a list of issues and where the church stands on them.

Answer:

In the mind of many people, life issues are the defining social, political, and theological issues of the twenty-first century. Hunger, homelessness, health care, gay rights, economic justice, abortion, and euthanasia are debated and discussed from all angles and perspectives. St. John Paul II wrote an encyclical, "Evangelium Vitae" (the Gospel of Life), in which he lays out the foundation for the church's position on these issues. All people have a dignity and destiny that is rooted in the fact that they are created by God to share in his life. Therefore, all life is of the highest value and is owed respect. It is the responsibility of every human being to defend, preserve, and protect human life from beginning until its end. Many viewpoints contrary to life use other measures to determine the value of life. Most of these begin with the idea that the individual is the master of one's own life and free to do with it as one sees fit. However, we believe that we are God's creation, subject to his will and responsible for our life and the lives of others. Every threat to the dignity of people needs to be addressed and corrected.
