The 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Each and every day, Jesus calls us to make the choice to live as faithful disciples.

3rd Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

- Mt 4:17

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Assumption Catholic School Open House

Sunday January 29, 2017
9:00am Mass
10:00—1:00pm Open House

*Come and learn more about the great things happening at Assumption!
Take a student-led tour and meet some of our current parents and our faculty and staff members.*

Our Knights of Columbus Council will be providing a free pancake breakfast in the school cafeteria.

Registration for the 2017-2018 school year will open in February.

We look forward to seeing at our Open House!

Assumption parishioners, we invite you to come over and see what WE have accomplished TOGETHER with our Parish Hall/Gym Renovation. We could not have done this without your generous financial support!

From the Pastor's Desk

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him." Peter, Andrew, James, and John's lives would never be the same. They were going about their usual business--fishing on the Sea of Galilee--when Jesus approached them and said, "Come after me." And that's just what they did. "At once they left their nets and followed him." Such a quick response to such a radical request!

What compelled these men to leave their livelihood to follow the Lord? His promise to them was that he would make them "fishers of men." Perhaps they thought that promise sounded fabulous. But it seems more likely that it was Christ himself who drew the men. There must have been something utterly attractive about him, and completely trustworthy. Otherwise, it seems unbelievable that these men would have been so quick to respond to his call.

This compelling man is the same Christ who calls us. We hear his voice in a different way, of course, through the Church and through the Bible, through his Spirit in our hearts, but it is nonetheless the same Jesus of Nazareth who asks us to follow him. Have we allowed ourselves to be drawn by his voice? Are we open to a real encounter with the Lord who changes lives?

If our relationship with Jesus does not transform us, if it does not change us into different, better people moment by moment and day by day, then chances are that we are not truly encountering him. He is too powerful to be inconsequential. It might take some courage and commitment to come into authentic contact with the Lord, but when we do, our lives will never be the same.
